

Paying for college classes?

~~~

Let the Officers' Spouses' Club, Fort Drum (OSC) help you!

It's scholarship time again!

The OSC will be awarding several scholarships to full or part-time students for the 2010-2011 academic year.

Eligible applicants:

- Children or spouses of active duty or retired active duty military members who will be enrolled in an accredited degree program this fall.
- Must reside in the Fort Drum area or associated communities.
- Open to all enlisted and officer spouses, applicants do not have to be members of OSC.

Scholarships are awarded based on scholastic merit and community involvement. Race, color, sex, national origin, or financial status does not effect the selection of recipients.

The completed application and required documentation must be postmarked by March 31, 2010. Applications are available at the Army Community Service, the Army Education Center, high school guidance centers, college financial aid offices, or by contacting the OSC Scholarship Chairperson, Tricia Loeb at ftdrumscholarships@hotmail.com

Pick up an application today!!!