

MEMBERSHIP HAS ITS PRIVILEGES

Besides helping out your local community and making new friends, membership in the Officers' Spouses' Club is rewarding in so many ways!

•Invitations to monthly luncheons and programs!

Visit with friends, learn something new, shop at our vendor tables and just take a break and enjoy yourself!

•Monthly E-Newsletter Mailings!

Quick access to important Club news and forms at our website-www.fdosc.com!

•Exciting and fun volunteer opportunities!

The OSC has so many ways to be involved! You can run your own sub-club committee, help out with our Craft Fair or lend a hand during a luncheon!

•A FREE Membership to the Black River Valley Club!

Organized in 1904, this historical building and club is a mainstay in Watertown, and they have extended its membership free of charge to all members of the Officer's Spouse's Club on Fort Drum. They encourage us to come to the club for lunch or dinner. The Club is also a great place to host a coffee, baby shower, or a hail and farewell. Be sure when you go or make a reservation to tell them you a member of the OSC on Fort Drum!

•Access to our Lending Closet

Simply contact any board member to borrow a coffee urn, silver hosting supplies, punch bowl , china or extra party serving utensils. We can help make your next meeting , party or welcome home more special.
